

Why is water so important?

Why is water so important?

Water keeps us alive and well, it makes us do simple things like washing yourself to making food.