

Why is water so important?

Water keeps us alive and well, it makes us do simple things like washing yourself to making food.

If water is so important, does everyone in the world have water?